APPENDIX A: ISU Financial Aid Code of Conduct Disclosure Form
IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

Financial Aid Code of Conduct

Introduction

Iowa Code Section 261E.2, Section 487(a)(25)(A) of the Higher Education Act (HEA), and Section 493(e) of the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) requires Iowa State University of Science and Technology (hereafter “Iowa State University”) to develop, administer, and enforce a code of conduct governing educational loan activities. Educational loan activities are those associated with any loan made, insured, or guaranteed under the Federal Direct Loan Program (FDLP), or any private educational loan. Loans issued to student or parent borrowers under the FDLP are the federal Stafford, parent PLUS, Grad PLUS, and Consolidation loans.

A private educational loan is any loan that is not made, insured, or guaranteed under Title IV of the Higher Education Act and is issued to a borrower expressly for postsecondary educational expenses, regardless of whether the loan is provided through the institution that the student attends or directly to the borrower from the lender. Private educational loans secured by a dwelling (e.g., a residential mortgage or reverse mortgage transaction), real property, or under an extension of credit under an open-end consumer credit plan (e.g., a home equity line of credit, or open line of credit tied to a Certificate of Deposit) are exempted from the definition of private educational loan.

All of the following individuals or entities associated with Iowa State University who are employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise have direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid must comply with this code of conduct governing educational loan activities:

- An employee
- A contract employee
- A director or officer
- An agent – including an alumni association, booster club, or other organization directly or indirectly associated with or authorized or employed by Iowa State University.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.2(1) and 261E.1(2) and (3); HEA Sections 487(a)(25)(A) and 151 Definitions (1)

An organization that is affiliated with Iowa State University must comply with certain aspects of the code of conduct, as identified below, if the organization is engaged in the practice of recommending, promoting, or endorsing education loans for families and students who attend Iowa State University. An organization is affiliated with Iowa State University if it is directly or indirectly related to Iowa State University and includes, but is not limited to, alumni organizations, foundations, athletic organizations, social, academic, and professional organizations, and others that provide financial and vocational services to Iowa State University’s students, employees or alumni. An organization does not need to be dependent on Iowa State University to be affiliated. An educational loan lender is not an affiliated organization.

HEA Section 151 Definitions (5); 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5)(iii); November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61979
This code of conduct must be published prominently on Iowa State University’s internet site. At least annually, Iowa State University’s officers, employees, and agents who are employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise have direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid must be informed of the provisions of this code of conduct.

Iowa Code Section 261E.2(1)(b); HEA Section 487(a)(25)(B) and (C)

Iowa State University’s code of conduct also addresses changes brought about by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (P.L. 110-315) and inducement regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Education (USDE) in 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5) and 34 CFR 682.401(e). These federal laws and regulations set forth standards for relationships between colleges and universities, their affiliated organizations, FFELP and private lenders, and FFELP guarantors.

Iowa State University acknowledges the assistance and guidance provided by the Model Educational Loan Code of Conduct for Covered Postsecondary Institutions that was prepared by the Iowa College Student Aid Commission, in consultation with the Iowa Attorney General’s Office, in the development of this ISU Financial Aid Code of Conduct.

1. NASFAA Statement of Ethical Principles

Iowa State University incorporates into its ISU Financial Aid Code of Conduct the following principles and standards that are primarily based on the National Association of Student Federal Aid Administrator’s (“NASFAA”) Statement of Ethical Principles and Code of Conduct and Iowa Code Chapter 261E. NASFAA’s Statement of Ethical Principles provides that the primary goal of the financial aid professional is to help students achieve their educational potential by providing appropriate financial resources. To this end, this Statement provides that the financial aid professional shall:

- Be committed to removing financial barriers for those who wish to pursue postsecondary learning.
- Make every effort to assist students with financial need.
- Be aware of the issues affecting students and advocate their interests at the institutional, state, and federal levels.
- Support efforts to encourage students, as early as the elementary grades, to aspire to and plan for education beyond high school.
- Educate students and families through quality consumer information.
- Respect the dignity and protect the privacy of students, and ensure the confidentiality of student records and personal circumstances.
- Ensure equity by applying all need analysis formulas consistently across the institution's full population of student financial aid applicants.
- Provide services that do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, or economic status.
- Recognize the need for professional development and continuing education opportunities.
- Promote the free expression of ideas and opinions, and foster respect for diverse viewpoints within the profession.
- Commit to the highest level of ethical behavior and refrain from conflict of interest or the perception thereof.
• Maintain the highest level of professionalism, reflecting a commitment to the goals of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.

Note: From Task Force on Standards of Excellence, Adopted by the NASFAA Board of Directors, April 1999

2. ISU Ethical Standards for Financial Aid Professionals

A financial aid professional is expected always to maintain exemplary standards of professional conduct in all aspects of carrying out his or her responsibilities, specifically including all dealings with any entities involved in any manner in student financial aid, regardless of whether such entities are involved in a government sponsored, subsidized, or regulated activity. In doing so, a financial aid professional should:

• Refrain from taking any action for his or her personal benefit.
• Refrain from taking any action he or she believes is contrary to law, regulation, or the best interests of the students and parents he or she serves.
• Ensure that the information he or she provides is accurate, unbiased, and does not reflect any preference arising from actual or potential personal gain.
• Be objective in making decisions and advising ISU regarding relationships with any entity involved in any aspect of student financial aid.

Disclose to ISU on the Form attached as Exhibit A any involvement with or interest in any entity involved in any aspect of student financial aid. This disclosure shall be made on an annual basis on a date prescribed by the Director of the ISU Office of Student Financial Aid and on a supplemental basis prior to the person becoming involved with or obtaining an interest in any entity involved in any aspect of student financial aid.

3. Advisory Councils

A. Impermissible Activities

An Iowa State University officer, employee, or agent who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans must not serve on or otherwise participate in an advisory council established by a lender, a group of lenders, or a lender’s affiliate.

Iowa Code Section 261E.3(6)

B. Permissible Activities

A Iowa State University officer, employee, or agent who is employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid may serve on an official, standing advisory council for a guarantor, including an Iowa College Student Aid Commission advisory council or task force, and be compensated for reasonable expenses incurred in that service.
An officer, employee or agent of Iowa State University may respond to any lender who seeks advice from the institution or groups of institutions by telephone, electronically, or in a meeting, about improving products or services for borrowers. However, Iowa State University may not accept any gift or compensation for responding including, but not limited to, transportation, lodging, or related expenses.

Iowa Code Section 261E.3(6); HEA Section 487(e)(7); 34 CFR 682.401(e)(2)(vi); November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61980

4. Boards of Directors of Lender, Lender Servicer, and Guarantor

A. Impermissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of Iowa State University who is employed in the financial aid office must not serve on or otherwise participate in a lender’s, lender servicer’s, or guarantor’s board of directors.

An officer, employee, or agent of Iowa State University who is not employed in the financial aid office but who has direct responsibility with respect to educational loans must not serve on or otherwise participate in a lender’s, lender servicer’s, or guarantor’s board of directors, unless Iowa State University has a written conflict of interest policy.

Iowa State University has a written conflict of interest policy for this purpose. See below under “Permissible Activities” for more information about the content of that policy.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.3(7)(a)(1) and (2) and 261E.2(3); HEA Section 487(e)(3)(B)(i) and (ii)

B. Permissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of Iowa State University who is not employed in the financial aid office and who has no direct responsibility with respect to educational loans may serve unrestricted and with compensation on the board of directors of a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor.

An officer, employee, or agent of Iowa State University who is not employed in the financial aid office but who has direct responsibility with respect to educational loans may serve with compensation on the board of directors of a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor, since Iowa State University has a written conflict of interest policy. Iowa State University’s conflict of interest policy as specified in this document is that an Iowa State University officer or agent who is serving on such a board of directors must not participate in any decision of the board with respect to any transaction regarding educational loans. Such an officer, employee, or agent of ISU must:

- Disclose, in writing, to his or her supervisor the nature and terms of service on the outside board;
- Notify the president of the outside board of directors in writing of his or her inability to participate in any discussion or decision of the board of directors with respect to any transaction regarding educational loans; and
- Formally recuse him- or herself (and request that the minutes of the meeting reflect recusal) from participating in any agenda item discussion or decision of the board of directors with respect to any transaction regarding educational loans.
The supervisor of any officer, employee or agent with responsibility for educational loans shall have the right at any time to require termination of service upon the outside board. Failure to terminate such service may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

_Iowa Code Sections 261E.2(3), 261E.3(6), 261E.3(7)(a)(1), 261E.3(7)(a)(2); HEA Section 487(e)(3)(B)(i) and (ii)_

5. Consulting and Contractual Arrangements

A. Impermissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of _Iowa State University_ who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans will not accept from any lender or its affiliate any fee, payment, or other financial benefit as compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or other contract to provide services to or on behalf of the lender. A prohibited financial benefit includes the opportunity to purchase stock on other than free market terms.

_Iowa Code Section 261E.3(3); HEA Section 487(e)(3)_

B. Permissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of _Iowa State University_ who is not employed in the financial aid office and who has no direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans may accept compensation from a lender for a consulting arrangement or other contract to provide services to or on behalf of a lender. However, if a lender is a FFELP lender, additional restrictions apply, as noted in the following paragraph.

_Iowa Code Section 261E.3(3)_

_Iowa State University_ may enter into a contractual arrangement with a FFELP lender to provide services only if those services are unrelated to any type of student aid, and are not undertaken to secure FFELP loan applications or limit a borrower’s choice of FFELP lender. An organization affiliated with _Iowa State University_ may enter into a contractual arrangement with a FFELP lender to provide services only if those services are unrelated to student loans.

_November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61976 and 61979_

6. Gifts

A. Gift Definition

A gift means any gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment (including expenses for shows, sporting events, or alcoholic beverages), hospitality (including private parties of select training or conference attendees), loan, or other item having a monetary value of more than three dollars as defined by the Iowa Gift law. A gift includes services, transportation, lodging, or meals, whether provided in kind, by purchase of a ticket, payment in advance, or reimbursement after the expense has been incurred.
B. Gifts to Family Members or Others

A gift to a family member of Iowa State University’s officer, employee, or agent who is employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid, or a gift to an individual based on that individual’s relationship with an officer, employee, or agent of Iowa State University is not permissible if either of the following applies:

- The gift is given with the knowledge and acquiescence of the institution’s officer, employee, or agent,
- The officer, employee, or agent has reason to believe the gift was given because of that person’s official position with the institution.

C. Impermissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of Iowa State University who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to federal and private educational loans must not solicit or accept any gift or series of gifts from a private educational loan lender, lender servicer, or guarantor. See exceptions below under “Permissible Activities.”

D. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University, a Iowa State University employee, or a member of an organization affiliated with Iowa State University may accept items from a private educational loan lender, lender servicer, or guarantor that are offered as a form of generalized marketing or advertising or to create good will and do not have a monetary value of more than three dollars.

NOTE: See Iowa Code Section 68B.22. Employees of state agencies are subject to the restrictions contained in the Iowa Gift Law. For purposes of this policy a private or FFELP educational loan lender, lender servicer, or guarantor is considered to be a Restricted Donor as that term is defined under the Iowa Gift law. A “nominal” amount is undefined in Iowa Code, federal law or the USDE’s inducement regulations.

Examples of permissible gifts include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Pens or pencils
- Notepads
- Sticky-notes
- Rulers
- Calculators
- Small tote bags
- Other individual office supply items

An employee of Iowa State University may also accept items of value from a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor that are also available or distributed free of charge to the general public.
7. Philanthropic Gifts and Contributions to the Institution

A. Impermissible Activities

Iowa State University must not accept philanthropic contributions from a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor that are related to the educational loans provided by the lender, lender servicer, or guarantor to Iowa State University, or that are made in exchange for any advantage related to educational loans. In addition, Iowa State University or its affiliated organization(s) must not accept financial aid funds under any Title IV, State, or private program from a guarantor based on an agreement to use the guarantee agency for processing loans, or to provide a specified volume of loans using the agency’s guarantee.

B. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may accept philanthropic contributions from a lender, lender servicer, or a guarantor that are not related to the educational loans provided by the lender or guarantor, and that are not made in exchange for any advantage to the lender, guarantor, or servicer. However, Iowa State University must report philanthropic contributions made by a lender with whom we have a preferred lender arrangement* to the Iowa Attorney General. (The process for this disclosure will be developed by the Iowa Attorney General in administrative rules.)

*See “Preferred Lender Arrangements” for more information.

8. Meals, Refreshments, and Receptions

A. Impermissible Activities – also see Gifts

See the definition of “Gift” for information about cases when meals, refreshments, or other hospitality is considered a prohibited gift.

B. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University’s employees who are employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise have direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid, affiliated organizations, and agents may accept from any lender or guarantor food and refreshments that are reasonable in cost and are offered as an integral part of a training session or conference that is designed to contribute to the professional development of Iowa State University’s employees or agents. The food and refreshment sponsored by the lender or guarantor must be offered to all who attend the training session or conference.

Iowa State University’s employees who are employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise have direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid may attend a lender- or guarantor-sponsored reception for which food and refreshments are provided, so long as the reception is a general gathering that is held in conjunction with a training session or conference and is open to all attendees. These events provide attendees with the opportunity for information-sharing on the training being conducted.

In addition, Iowa State University may accept from a guarantor food and refreshments that are reasonable in cost and provided in connection with other workshops and forums the agency uses to fulfill its guaranty agency responsibilities.

Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5)(b); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B)(ii)(II); 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5)(ii)(C); 34 CFR 682.401(e)(2)(iv) and (v)

C. Prudent Person Test

Iowa State University’s employees who participate in the planning of a student-aid related training session or conference will ensure that food and refreshments sponsored by a lender or guarantor is reasonable in cost by applying the “prudent person test.” In other words, the cost per person for the sponsored event must not exceed the cost that would be incurred by the prudent person under the circumstances at the time the decision was made to incur the cost. The burden of proof will be, in part, on conference managers to show that costs are consistent with the normal per-person cost of the event.

November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61981

9. Travel, Lodging and Transportation

A. Impermissible Activities – also see Gifts

B. Permissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of Iowa State University who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has direct responsibilities for educational loans and who serves on a guarantor advisory council may accept reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred for service on the guarantor’s advisory council. See “Advisory Councils” for more information about permissible activities.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.1(5) and 261E.3(1); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B) and 487(e)(7)

Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5); HEA Section 428(b)(3); HEA Section 435(d)(5)

B. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may request and accept, free of charge, from any lender or guarantor standard materials, activities, and programs, including workshops and training, that are designed to improve the lender or guarantor’s services or contribute to the professional development of Iowa State University’s financial aid office staff relative to financial aid administration, student aid outreach, financial literacy, debt management, default prevention, and educational counseling.

Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5)(a); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B)(ii); HEA Section 487(e)(6)(B)(i); 34 CFR 682.401(e)(2)(ii), (iii) and (iv)

11. Revenue-Sharing Arrangements

A. Impermissible Activities

Iowa State University’s officers, employees, or agents who are employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise have direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid will not solicit or accept a fee, revenue- or profit-sharing, or other material benefit provided by a private or FFELP lender that issues educational loans to or on behalf of our students in exchange for Iowa State University recommending the lender or the lender’s educational loan products.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.1(11) and 261E.3(4); HEA Section 487(e)(1); Truth in Lending Act Section 140(b)(2)

12. Choice of Lender by Borrower

A. Impermissible Activities

Iowa State University’s financial aid office will not:

- Require a prospective borrower to use a particular lender
- Deny or otherwise impede a borrower’s choice of lender
- Assign a first-time borrower’s loan to a particular lender through award packaging or other methods
- Cause unnecessary certification delays for borrowers

Iowa Code Sections 261E.6(1)(a) and 261E.6(2)(c), (d), and (e); HEA Section 487(e)(4); 34 CFR 682.212(h)(1)(i); 34 CFR 682.212(h)(2)(iii), (iv), and (v)
13. Bundling of Private Loans

A. Impermissible Activities

Iowa State University will not bundle (i.e., package) private educational loans in a student’s financial aid award, except under certain conditions. See “Permissible Activities” below for more information about acceptable conditions for private loan bundling.

Iowa Code Section 261E.5(2)

B. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may bundle (i.e., package) private educational loans in a student’s financial aid award under any one of the following conditions:

- The borrower is ineligible for additional funding
- The borrower has exhausted the limits of his or her eligibility for Title IV loans (Federal Perkins, Stafford, and, as applicable, parent or Grad PLUS)
- The borrower has not filled out a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- The borrower does not desire, or refuses to apply for, a Title IV loan (including a parent PLUS loan)

The bundling of private educational loans will be clearly and conspicuously disclosed to the borrower, in a manner that distinguishes them from loans made under Title IV of the HEA, prior to the borrower’s acceptance of the financial aid package.

Iowa Code Section 261E.5(2); HEA Section 152(a)(1)(B)(iii)

14. State Education Grants, Scholarships, and Other Financial Aid

A. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may accept Iowa grants, scholarships, and other state-based financial aid funds administered by the Iowa College Student Aid Commission under Iowa Code Chapter 261.

Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5)(e); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B)(ii)(VI)

15. Loan Terms and Conditions

A. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may solicit and accept the following favorable educational loan terms and conditions on behalf of our student and parent borrowers:
- A reduced origination fee
- A reduced interest rate
- Payment of the federal default fee on a Stafford or PLUS loan made under the FFELP, if applicable
- Benefits offered to a borrower under a repayment incentive program that requires, at minimum, one or more scheduled payments to receive or retain the benefit
- Benefits under a loan forgiveness program for public service or other targeted purposes approved by:
  - The Iowa Attorney General for a private loan forgiveness program
  - The U.S. Department of Education for a federal loan forgiveness program

An employee of Iowa State University who is employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans or other student aid may accept favorable terms, conditions, and borrower benefits on an educational loan if the terms, conditions, and benefits on the employee’s loan are comparable to those provided to all Iowa State University students.

Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5)(c); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B)(ii)(III)

16. Preferred Lender Arrangements

A. Definition

A preferred lender arrangement is an arrangement or agreement between Iowa State University or an organization affiliated with Iowa State University and a lender that provides educational loans to our borrowers in which Iowa State University or our affiliated organization recommends, promotes, or endorses the lender’s educational loan product. A preferred lender arrangement does not include Federal Direct loans, Federal Perkins loans, or Federal PLUS loans made under the Federal PLUS auction pilot program.

B. Impermissible Activities

Iowa State University will not create or participate in a preferred lender arrangement that has not been processed by the ISU Purchasing Department and where any lenders could have a reasonable opportunity to request to participate in the preferred lender arrangement.

Iowa Code Section 261E.1(8) and (9); HEA Section 151 Definitions (8)

C. Preferred Lender List Alternatives

1. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may employ a preferred lender list for private loans. Creation of a preferred lender list must be processed through the ISU Purchasing Department and any lender may respond to a Request for Information issued by the ISU Purchasing Department. Criteria to select lenders for a preferred lender list may include, but is not limited to, interest rate, origination fees, borrower benefits, servicing levels, and participation with a common loan platform (such as ELM) for loan processing, certification and disbursement of funds.
Iowa State University’s financial aid office may employ the following alternatives to a preferred lender list. These alternatives are not considered a preferred lender list or preferred lending arrangement:

- If Iowa State University is unable to identify at least three unaffiliated lenders that will make loans to its students or parents sufficient to meet the requirements of a preferred lender list, we may provide the names of all of the lenders that have indicated that they would provide loans to our students and their parents. In providing this information, Iowa State University will make it clear that we do not endorse the lenders, and provide a clear statement that the borrower may choose to use any lender that will make loans to the borrower for attendance at Iowa State University.

- Iowa State University may provide a comprehensive list of lenders that have made loans to our students or parents in the past three to five years (or some other period) and that have indicated that they would continue to make loans to our students. Iowa State University will not provide any additional information about the lender, including, for example, the percentage of loans made to our students by a particular lender. Iowa State University will make it clear that we do not endorse the lenders, and provide a clear statement that the borrower can choose to use any lender that will make loans to the borrower for attendance at Iowa State University.

If Iowa State University initially meets the preferred lender list requirement of including a minimum of three unaffiliated lenders, we may be later notified that one or more of those lenders has decided to discontinue making loans to our students and parents. The USDE and the Iowa Attorney General will take such circumstances, over which we have no control, into consideration in determining our compliance.

USDE Dear Colleague Letter GEN-08-06

17. Payment of Educational Loan Costs

A. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may make principal or interest payments to a federal or private loan lender to lower costs for educational loan borrowers.

B. Cohort Default Rate Impact

If Iowa State University, or any owner, agent, contractor, employee, or other entity or individual affiliated with Iowa State University made a payment to prevent default on a Stafford loan, or a Consolidation loan that repaid a Stafford loan, during the period for which our cohort default rate is calculated, that loan is considered to be in default and counts against our cohort default rate notwithstanding the payment.

Iowa Code Section 261E.3(7)(b); 34 CFR 668.183(c)(1)(iii); USDE Cohort Default Rate Guide, Chapter 2, p. 2-1.9

18. Opportunity Pools
A. Definition

An opportunity pool means an educational loan made by a private lender to a borrower that Iowa State University guarantees in any manner or that involves Iowa State University directly or indirectly paying points, premiums, payments, additional interest, or other financial support to the lender for the purpose of that lender extending credit to the borrower.

B. Impermissible Activities

Iowa State University will not solicit or accept from any lender an opportunity pool to be used for private educational loans in exchange for concessions or promises to the lender that Iowa State University will deliver a specified number of loans or loan volume. See “Preferred Lender Arrangements” for additional information.

C. Permissible Activities

Iowa State University may solicit or accept from any lender an opportunity pool to be used for private educational loans, if it is not provided in exchange for a promise that Iowa State University will deliver to the lender a specified number of loans or loan volume.

Iowa Code Section 261E.3(5); HEA Section 487(e)(5)

19. Loan Counseling
