Louise Rosenfeld Vocational Scholarship

Altrusa International, Inc. of Ames is offering a $500.00 vocational scholarship in memory of Louise Rosenfeld a pioneer member of our organization. The members of our organization are professionals in a variety of fields. Our common interest is the education of women which leads to improving the quality of life for women and their families.

The Altrusa organization is a nonpartisan, nonsectarian, nonprofit association of people who are united to achieve the Altrusa objectives and service program. Altrusa provides the channel through which leadership talents are coordinated and individual efforts expanded into a single significant volunteer force to improve the quality of life in our community.

The purpose of the Louise Rosenfeld Vocational scholarship is to provide support and encouragement to a non-traditional woman student of Story County seeking to further her post secondary vocational education or improve her vocational skills.

The qualifications for the scholarship are:
1. Must be a woman resident of Story County
2. Must be 23 years of age or older
3. Must be seeking to further her education or improve her vocational skill.

Applications are due: March 15, 2011
Send to:
Janet Brimeyer
