Mark Rossiter Scholarship

Background: The Mark Rossiter Scholarship was established in memory of the donor and intended to assist a student with a documented disability.

Eligibility: Applications will be accepted/considered from current ISU Sophomores or Juniors with documented disability and a minimum cumulative gpa of 2.5/4.0. Strong consideration given to those students registered with Student Disability Resources and utilizing accommodations at this time.

Award amount: Approximately $1380 – this is a one-time award to one qualified applicant.

Application material: Submit a typewritten essay (limited to 2 pages) addressing the following topics:

- Impact of your disability
- Strategies that you use to succeed
- Brief summary of your academic progress and ISU GPA
- Your personal and professional aspirations
- Provide a copy of your un-official transcript for Access+

Application deadline: Applications are due on March 15, 2012.

Contact Student Disability Resources (1076 SSB, disabilityresources@iastate.edu, or call 515/294-7220) with questions.
